

Son de Cuerdas

Programs

Grades K-3

In this captivating and compact program, we explore what it means to play a “style” of music through the use of various musical characters. Our interactive performance is supplemented by active listening and an explanation of how our instruments work.

Grades 9-12

The presentation would have a tone of didactical concert, presenting entire movements and short pieces and explaining their historical and musical context. With some pieces examples will be made showcasing them with short examples.

Adults

Program for adults: a varied and diverse program highlighting Latin American composers, both recognized and undiscovered, in order to introduce diversity and new works to the Classical repertoire. Arrangements of famous songs from the popular Latin American tradition.
